Tribù & Lagoon, a perfect fit

Discreet luxury, refined details and an impeccable quality is the way to describe Belgian outdoor furniture company Tribù. A philosophy that is shared with Lagoon.

With more than 50 years of experience, Tribù has grown into an internationally acclaimed brand in the high-end segment. The mix of contemporary elegance, timeless purity and delicate detailing creates a finesse that can be compared to that of the finest interior furniture.

As innovators, it is our passion to develop durable and timeless outdoor furniture, using materials with a natural look and feel, that nevertheless meet the demanding standards of the outdoors.

As a family company we value the time spent with friends and family and understand the importance of good design to create an ambiance, with every detail in harmony, that helps to relax and leave the daily stress behind.

Tosca, an extra wide braiding sets the tone

For the loose furniture of the SEVENTY 8, Lagoon opted for Tosca. This elegant collection, designed by Monica Armani, is simultaneously warm and inviting, stylish and intriguing. A rounded seating shell with tapered legs, is upholstered with extra-large, vertical braiding.

The material used for the braiding is genuinely innovative: foam mousse is encased in a seamless sheath of knitted textile and polyolefine which makes the material weather-resistant, but also surprisingly soft to touch. The seating comfort is especially pleasant thanks to the comfortable, weather-resistant cushions.

The table in the salon area is a true masterpiece: an oval tabletop in ceramic with a discreet cloudy pattern rests on tapered legs in powdercoated stainless steel. The soft ton-sur-ton colours in linen emphasize the exclusive character of this luxurious outdoor collection.

Monica Armani

Attention to detail and a sense of geometric perfection characterize the work of Italian designer Monica Armani. Several leading home interior labels including Poliform, Moroso, Boffi and B&B Italia have collaborated with her.

Flybridge

On the flybridge, a living area on its own, a darker wengé sets the tone with Tosca armchairs gathered around a table and a lounge set consisting of a 3-seat sofa and some club chairs, giving you the perfect panoramic view.

Dinner area

The Illum table, designed by Marc Merckx and Pieter Maes, has a width of 71cm which enhances the intimate feeling at family & friends dinners. The table with slender legs in powdercoated aluminium is kept pure and simple. The top in ceramic is glued on glass, which enhances the solidity, and has a subtle cloudy pattern. The 'piombo' colour matches beautifully with the wengé weave of the eight Tosca armchairs.

Marc Merckx & Pieter Maes

Marc Merckx and Pieter Maes met while working at Vincent Van Duysen Architects and discovered they shared a common vision about design. Both started their own studios, Maes concentrating on furniture design and Merckx as interior architect with residential and commercial projects all over the world.

Flybridge Lounge area

The inviting lounge set consisting of a 3-seat sofa and two club chairs from the Tosca collection, is the perfect place for relaxing moments. As it is Tribù's mission to help you forget the daily stress, we have made our cushion fillings care-free and waterproof. A cover in laminated polypropylene prevents water from penetrating. The yarn used to stitch the seams swells when getting wet, preventing water from entering through the seams. Additionally, the seams are protected on the inside with an extra covering. On top of that, the comfort is soft and cozy.

Living the good life outside

Living the good life outside is Tribù's philosophy.

Our furniture is designed to lay back and relax, enjoy the sun or watch a beautiful sunset. What better place than to lie on an elegant Tosca lounge or snooze away with your loved ones in a Tosca daybed? Our Nomad poufs, also designed by Monica Armani, serve different functions whatever the moment requires; footstool, side table or additional seating.
